

Celebrate 38th!

Saturday, September 25th, 2010

It will be a great day full of music, dance, food, performances, special sales, prizes and surprises on 38th Street!

Kick it off at 38th and Pleasant, 10 am to noon:

- Street closed for diverse music, dance and more on an outdoor stage: See the webpage for details!
- Open House at the Center for Performing Arts with sample classes
- Free pumpkins from Lake Country School
- Visit the new community garden
- Face painting and family flag making for the...

Family Sidewalk Parade at noon! Bring the whole family, dogs included. We'll line up at Pleasant and follow the bagpipes up 38th street to Nicollet.

Eat your lunch and enjoy 38th and Nicollet, 11 am to 2 pm:

- Jazz band and free hot dogs on the Carquest grill (11-1) celebrating Quality Coaches' 39th anniversary
- Free kettle corn and lemonade courtesy of Blackbird
- Free cookies from Aliveness Project
- Music, history, prizes and free hot dogs at Nicollet Ace Hardware
- Free Nicollet Pothole ice cream courtesy of Lander Group at 1 pm
- Hot sports car sale at Quality Coaches
- Free face painting & temporary tattoos by Elements of Creativity, 11-1
- 10% off on Katy Schmaty jewelry, 12-5
- Dollar Day at Salvation Army Thrift Store

Spend your afternoon at 38th and Grand:

- Happy Hour (drinks only) on Victor's 1959 Café patio, 2:30-4:30 pm
- 38th Street Flea Market hosted by Grand Café, brats to buy
- Unique purses & clothes and free bottled water at Peter Pan Cleaners
- 50 cent children's clothes at Better Than Ever
- 10% off & enter prize drawing at Sugar Sugar!—just say "38th Rocks!"
- Free snacks from Erik Brown Homes
- $5 Caricatures by Bryce Davidson
- Something special at Petersen Flowers

And much more! See www.kingfield.org/celebrate-38th for details and updates.

See You September 25th on 38th!